When to wear the mask

If you are taking care of a person with suspected COVID-19 infection

If you have cough, fever and difficulty breathing

Masks are effective only when used in combination with frequent hand-cleaning with alcohol-based hand rub or soap and water.

